2002 REX HILL RESERVE PINOT NOIR MAGNUM

2011 REX HILL WILLAMETTE VALLEY PINOT NOIR MAGNUM

REX HILL's wine library is a very special place. Filled with large format bottles that date back to 1983, the library is one of those hallowed places in the REX HILL winery that we all want to spend time poring through. More than just a reference point for past years' growing seasons, these wines represent a deep history of award-winning Pinot Noir production.

We are pleased to offer one of these special wines with your December optional shipment - the 2002 REX HILL Reserve Pinot Noir. Paired with our 2011 REX HILL Willamette Valley Pinot Noir, these two wines will be the highlight of any holiday celebration.

2002 REX HILL RESERVE PINOT NOIR MAGNUM

The 2002 vintage was one of the greatest in Oregon's grape growing history. Long, dry and warm, but without significant heat spikes in the summer, weather conditions that year were perfect for Pinot Noir. Beautifully integrated and aged beautifully, this Pinot Noir is all about richness, balance and finesse.

2011 REX HILL WILLAMETTE VALLEY PINOT NOIR MAGNUM

When first poured, the 2011 REX HILL Willamette Valley Pinot Noir shows intense aromatics of black cherries, ripe raspberries, cassis, tobacco and forest floor. After some time in the glass, the wine opens and deepens revealing notes of iris, cinnamon, spice and huckleberries. Firm ripe tannins and a rich texture help the wine along into the finish. A beautiful addition to any cellar, the 2011 REX HILL Willamette Valley Pinot Noir has the focus, balance and intensity to age and become more complex over the next 20 years.
